HCPS Objection to the Use of Specific Material Form

The Objection process begins with a conversation with the Principal, Media Specialist or Teacher at the specific school site. This Objection Form may be submitted if the Objecting Party is not content with the school site's proposed resolution.

Procedures for Concerns Regarding Materials

1. The objecting party begins by sharing their concern with the school's principal, library media specialist, or teacher.
2. Should the objecting party be dissatisfied with the school site's proposed resolution and further review is requested, the objecting party will utilize the HCPS Objection to Use of Specific Materials Form, attesting they have read/viewed the material in its entirety, and citing specific concerns.
3. A resident of the county who is not the parent or guardian of a student with access to school district materials may not object to more than one material per month (s. 1006.28(2)(a)2, F.S.)
4. Upon receipt of a completed HCPS Objection of Use to Specific Materials Form, the school site's Educational Media Materials Committee (EMMC) convenes to:
 - Read material in its entirety
 - Consult professional reviews
 - Review submitted form
 - Weigh merits vs alleged faults
 - Align with HCPS Selection Criteria, including Federal and State legislation
 - Reach a school decision
 - Provide a decision report to the objecting party
5. The decision of a school's Educational Media Materials committee applies only to their own school.
6. Should the objecting party wish to appeal the decision of the school site's EMMC, they may request and submit a District Level appeal within 10 school days of receipt of the school site EMMC's decision report.
7. Should the objecting party wish to appeal the decision of the District Level committee, they may request and submit an appeal to the School Board within 10 school days of receipt of the District Level decision report.
